

The League for Innovation

Sunday, October 15, 2006

My Personal Itinerary for: 2006 Conference on Information Technology, Charlotte, NC

GA

9:15 AM - 10:15 AM Get Started With Camtasia Studio: Lecture and Tutorial Recordings Made Easy

Hands-On Lab 218 A, East Meeting Rooms

James Patterson, Professor, Business and Information Technology Division, Paradise Valley Community College, AZ; Tanya Reynolds, Manager, Education, TechSmith, MI

9:15 AM - 10:15 AM A New Generation of Learning

Special Session 208 B, West Meeting Rooms

Mark Milliron, Senior Lecturer, Endowed Fellow, NISOD Director, College of Education, NISOD (National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development), TX

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM Rules for Engagement

General Session Ballroom, Meeting Room Level

Ellen Wagner, Senior Director, Worldwide E-Learning Solutions, Adobe Systems, Inc., WA

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM Building a Podcast Development Group

Forum 206 AB, West Meeting Rooms

Robert Buford, Associate Professor, Communications; Kate LeGrand, Office Systems Technology, Broward Community College, FL

1:45 PM - 2:45 PM Techno Triage: Using a USB Thumb Drive and a USB Cable to Solve Most Technology Issues

Forum 207 D, West Meeting Rooms

Richard Cothorn, Director of Operational Support, Instruction; Chris Missel, Assistant Vice President, Information Technology, Altamaha Technical College, GA

3:15 PM - 4:15 PM Create Podcasts and Screencasts With Camtasia Studio

Hands-On Lab 218 A, East Meeting Rooms

Jacques du Plessis, Professor, School of Information Studies, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, WI; Tanya Reynolds, Manager, Education, TechSmith, MI

4:30 PM - 5:30 PM Web 2.0 Whirlwind: Six Free, Easy, and Useful Web Applications in 60 Minutes

Forum 206 AB, West Meeting Rooms

Barry Dahl, Vice President, Technology, Lake Superior College, MN

5:30 PM - 7:30 PM Monday Evening Reception

Reception Hall C, Exhibit Level

Mary Harris, Manager, Conference and Presenter Communications, League for Innovation in the Community College, AZ

Tuesday, October 24, 2006

The League for Innovation

Sunday, October 15, 2006

My Personal Itinerary for: 2006 Conference on Information Technology, Charlotte, NC

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM Taking Your Online Courses to the Next Level With Web Conferencing

Hands-On Lab 218 A, East Meeting Rooms
James Bender, Director, Instruction, Lansing Community College, MI

9:15 AM - 10:15 AM A Few Seconds a Day Keeps the Tech Guy Away: Professional Development With the 30-Second Tutorial

Forum 208 A, West Meeting Rooms
Tom Bell, Associate Dean, Learning Research Center; Steve McLaughlin, Coordinator, Distance Learning, John A. Logan College, IL

11:15 AM - 12:30 PM The Challenge of Change

General Session Ballroom, Meeting Room Level
Martin Bean, Managing Director, Microsoft Corporation, WA

1:15 PM - 2:15 PM Can You Hear Me Now? Audio Enhancing Your Courses

Forum 207 A, West Meeting Rooms
Jean Kent, Coordinator, Education / Planning/ Distance Learning, Seattle Community College District, WA

2:30 PM - 3:30 PM Create Video Tutorials for Students and Colleagues

Hands-On Lab 215, East Meeting Rooms
Dave Hamilton, Educational Advisor, Education, Matchware, Inc., FL

3:45 PM - 4:45 PM Improving Internal Communication and Collaboration Using SharePoint Portal and Microsoft CRM

Forum 210 A, West Meeting Rooms
Richard Schumacher, Manager, Technology Initiatives, St. Louis Community College, MO

5:00 PM - 6:00 PM Smart Classroom on Wheels

Forum 207 A, West Meeting Rooms
Yolanda Sheppard, Technical Assistant, Library; Rong Wang, Assistant Director, Library, Bergen Community College, NJ

5:00 PM - 6:00 PM Streaming Video for Distance Learning

Forum 201 B, West Meeting Rooms
Timothy Haley, Professor, Music, Sandhills Community College, NC

Wednesday, October 25, 2006

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM Moodle: An Open-Source Alternative for Distance Learning

Forum 206 AB, West Meeting Rooms
Rajiv Malkan, Professor, Computer Information Technologies, Montgomery College, TX

